DONATIONS & VOLUNTEER SUPPORT NEEDED FOR OUR NEIGHBORS AFFECTED BY TORNADOES OR FLOODING

Fifteen counties reported damage and flooding from severe weather Dec. 23-25, including communities in or near Clarksdale, Sardis, Holly Springs, Faulkner and Amory with Holly Springs as the hardest hit area. This extremely long-track tornado was believed to have been on the ground for at least two hours producing damage up to EF4 intensity and covering an area of up to 150 miles. Monetary donations are being requested to help the victims with their immediate needs and with the long-term efforts of rebuilding their lives.

Bishop Kopacz has approved a second collection for the victims of the flood and tornado's in Mississippi. This collection will be next weekend – January 23-24, 2016.

Catholic Charities, Jackson role is to assess needs of families and individuals, provide direct assistance and connect them with other service providers. Those who prefer making a direct donation to Catholic Charities may do so at the following link:

www.catholiccharitiesjackson.org

Volunteer support is needed for skilled labor in the Holly Springs area providing help with debris removal and home repair or building. Interested persons can contact Lois Harrison at Sacred Heart Southern Missions: lharrison@shsm.org or (901) 626-5432.

Why wish upon a star when you can pray to the one who created it.
